

DHANEKULA INSTITUTE OF ENGINEERING & TECHNOLOGY
GANGURU: VIJAYAWADA – 521 139
Process For establishment of professional Society chapter

1. Every department should host at least two professional society chapters in which two professional societies chapter in which good no of student and faculty should be member.
2. Every teacher should be member in two professional Societies at least one in existing chapter in department.
3. Every student should be member in any of the professional society chapter in the department/Institution.
4. Professional society activity committee member of the department should plan the list of events to be conducted on the year and submit budget to the respective head of the department and to the coordinator .Approval shall be through head of the department.
5. Member of the professional society activity committee should involve student member for active conduct of the events.
6. Professional Society activity committee shall plan at least two activities in the institution connected to the existing chapters.

PRINCIPAL