DESCRIPTION

The NSS Unit volunteers of Dhanekula Institute of Engineering & Technology have been entrusted with a vital role in the General Elections 2024 by providing webcasting services at various polling booths under the Penamaluru Assembly Constituency on 13-05-2024. This assignment, as directed by the Deputy Tahsildar of Penamaluru, involves leveraging technology to enhance the transparency and integrity of the election process. During this initiative, the NSS volunteers assisted the concern authorities in setting up and managing webcast equipment, ensuring continuous live streaming from the polling stations. Their efforts enabled real-time monitoring of voting activities by election officials, helping to prevent any irregularities and ensuring adherence to election protocols. Their involvement also underscores the commitment of Dhanekula Institute of Engineering & Technology to fostering responsible and active citizenship among its students.
