

DHANEKULA INSTITUTE OF ENGINEERING & TECHNOLOGY
GANGURU: VIJAYAWADA – 521 139
Process for Enhancing Student Participation - Arts/Cultural events

---

Student Participation in extracurricular activities through arts and cultural program enhance the ----- Process, self confidence and innovative capacities which were essential for overall development of students. Arts, literary and cultural shall be responsible for conduct events and make students capable of participating in national events.

One faculty member along with two students from every year shall be the member of the arts, literary and cultural cell, one among them (faculty) shall be nominated the coordinator of the cell, who has the responsibility of planning the institute level events.

Department staff member shall plan year calendar compatible to the time table scheduled and conduct the events throughout the academic year and the winner of the event to be awarded.

Activities are so planned in such a way that every student should participate in at least one event and student member should take active role in conduct of events.

Appreciation certificate may also be issued for the best student member by the committee in every department while rating the leadership qualification displayed in conduct of the events throughout the academic year.

PRINCIPAL